Otsuka Joins UN Global Compact

Otsuka Holdings Co., Ltd. is pleased to announce that it has become a signatory to the United Nations Global Compact* (UNGC) in order to express its commitment to corporate social responsibility (CSR) and sustainability.

The Otsuka Group, dedicated to the philosophy ‘Otsuka-people creating new products for better health worldwide’, is expanding globally as a total healthcare company. Otsuka employees around the world pledge to abide by principles incorporated in the Otsuka Group Global Code of Business Ethics and the Otsuka Group Global Anti-corruption Policy, which are consistent with the spirit of the UNGC.

Moreover, as the expectations from CSR activities held by international society continue to increase, Otsuka’s commitment as a signatory to adhere to the UNGC’s 10 principles also recognizes the importance of advancing its corporate social responsibility and sustainability activities.

Tatsuo Higuchi, president and CEO of Otsuka Holdings commented, “Otsuka believes that sustainable development is at the core of the realization of our corporate philosophy. Voicing our support for the UNGC is a reflection of the importance we attach to stakeholder trust and to the concept of sustainability in all that we do.”

*About the United Nations Global Compact

The UN Global Compact is a voluntary initiative in which signatory companies and organizations commit to a global framework embodying 10 principles on the protection of human rights, humane and non-discriminatory labour practices, environmentally sound practices, and prevention of corruption. The Global Compact is an encouragement for companies to pursue sustainable growth and be a good member of society.

The Global Compact was proposed in 1999 by former UN Secretary General Kofi Annan at the World Economic Forum (Davos meeting) and was inaugurated in 2000. For more information about the UNGC, please visit <https://www.unglobalcompact.org/>.
